

75th Anniversary of VE Day - Friday 8th May 2020

(Photos by kind permission of Dave Lemon)

The early May bank holiday was moved back four days, from the Monday to the Friday, for the occasion. Many residents held socially-distanced tea parties in their roads, and flags and bunting decorated the village. Luckily the weather stayed fine.